Last updated May 13, 2023

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully. By using the website, or using any service that DOOR Hacker (“DOOR Hacker”, “Company”, “we” or “us”) provides (jointly referred to as "Website", "Sites" or "Services"), you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with the terms of this Privacy Policy, please do not use the Website or the DOOR Hacker services.

This Privacy Policy is incorporated into the Terms of Service between DOOR Hacker and Customer (the “Agreement”). Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement.

If you subscribe to DOOR Hacker’s services (“Customer”), we may receive and store information which you provide to us about yourself and your services and your clients (“Users”).

THIS PRIVACY POLICY ONLY GOVERNS DOOR HACKER’S USE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION. THE USE OF USER’S PERSONAL INFORMATION BY CUSTOMER (OR OTHER THIRD PARTIES) IS NOT CONTROLLED BY DOOR HACKER, AND USER SHOULD REVIEW CUSTOMER’S PRIVACY POLICY INDEPENDENTLY. DOOR HACKER IS NOT RESPONSIBLE AND WILL BEAR NO LIABILITY TO CUSTOMER’S PRIVACY POLICY OR TO CUSTOMER’S COMPLIANCE WITH IT.

Automated decision – making

DOOR Hacker integrates the content of the various classified ads websites in our Platform and directs quality traffic to their advertisements. Furthermore, we are capable of generating additional traffic by sending the right advert to the right user at the right time, through our native advertising products. We use automated decision-making procedures to respond to your choices on the Platform search engine, in order to render the services under the Legal Notice and offer you a quality and satisfactory service which is in accordance with your search.

Also, we generate user profiles. To do this we use cookies (if you have given your consent) and similar technologies that allows us to collect information about the searches you’ve made, the adverts or sections you’ve clicked on, the last adverts you’ve visited or the adverts that we’ve shown you on our websites. This information allows us to, for example, show you suggestions which are similar to your searches or visited adverts or to show you personalized adverts related to your searches. We could also store your pseudonymized IP address in order to send you commercial communications based on your location.

What personal information does the Customer provide to DOOR Hacker?

We receive and store any information you provide to us through the Website or otherwise (for example, if you contact us by telephone or e-mail). As a Customer, when you register to the Sites and/or Services, you may be asked to provide DOOR Hacker an active e-mail address and other contact and personal details (or other allowed means of identification), and to select a password. To the extent applicable, any such information may be provided by you either directly (by submitting it yourself) or by signing up to the Sites and/or Services using your social network account (for example, but not limited to, connecting your Facebook, Instagram, Google or Twitter account to our Services) and selecting to grant the Sites and/or Services access to certain data available on such account(s).

DOOR Hacker can ask you to provide additional payment and transaction related personal information, to the extent required to provide the Services.

As a Customer, you may also need to set-up a profile using certain of the Services, which is available on websites other than your own. Some of this data is intended to be publicly available as a way for users to approach the Customer. DOOR Hacker does not have any obligation under this Privacy Policy with respect to information which a Customer provides and which is intended to be publicly available.

You may also provide DOOR Hacker certain details concerning your organization, such as, but not limited to, the organization's billing details, main contact persons, and business needs and preferences. If such information includes personal information related to others, you confirm that you have brought this policy to their attention and received their permission to the upload of their details to the Sites and/or Services and to the use of their details under this policy.

Please bear in mind that false, incorrect, incomplete, or outdated information can prevent you from registering and using the Services and/or Sites or impair DOOR Hacker's ability to provide you with the Services and to contact you.

What internet traffic does DOOR Hacker collect?

Certain of the Services and/or Sites provide a comprehensive solution to Users and Customers, which enables them to contact each other, interact and manage their engagement by using such Services and/or Sites. When you use such Services and/or the Sites, the information routed via the Services and/or Sites is accessible to DOOR Hacker.

When you use the Services and/or the Sites, DOOR Hacker may collect information, such as, but not limited to, session durations, page impressions, Internet protocol (IP) addresses, details from your device, for example, the operating system and browser that you use, and users' activities on the Services and/or Sites, the domain name that served you to access the Services and/or Sites, and content types and origins.

DOOR Hacker will also store information related to online data or metadata, such as web page addresses, structure, data fields and images.

Further information is collected when you and DOOR Hacker exchange communications, for example, when you submit an inquiry to customer support.

What does DOOR Hacker do with your personally identifiable information?

DOOR Hacker uses personally identifiable information for the following purposes:

- If DOOR Hacker believes that you have breached the Agreement or any other agreement with DOOR Hacker or abused your rights to use the Services or the Sites or performed any act or omission that DOOR Hacker believes to be violating any applicable law, rules, or regulations. DOOR Hacker may share your information with law enforcement agencies, governmental agencies and other competent authorities as well as with other third parties, as may be required;
- If DOOR Hacker is required, or believes that it is required by law to share or disclose your information; In any case of dispute, or legal proceeding of any kind between you and DOOR Hacker, or between you and other users or third parties with respect to, or in relation with the Services or the Sites (including a dispute between User and Customer), DOOR Hacker can use your information in preparing its legal case in connection with such dispute or proceedings;
- In any case where DOOR Hacker believes that sharing information is necessary to prevent imminent physical harm or damage to property;
- If DOOR Hacker organizes the operation of the Services or the Sites within a different framework, or through another legal structure or entity, or if DOOR Hacker is acquired by, or merged with another entity it can share your information with the new entity who will operate the Services or the Sites, provided, however, that those entities agree to be bound by the provisions of this Privacy Policy, with respective changes taken into consideration;
- DOOR Hacker can also share personally identifiable information with sub-contractors and other companies or organizations connected, or affiliated with DOOR Hacker, such as subsidiaries, sister-companies and parent companies.

How does DOOR Hacker use anonymous, statistical or aggregated information?

DOOR Hacker may also use anonymous, statistical or aggregated information to properly operate the Services or the Services; to improve the quality and functionality of the Services or the Sites; to enhance your experience; to create new services, including customized services; to change or cancel existing content or services, and for other internal and statistical purposes.

DOOR Hacker can share, publish, post, disseminate, transmit or otherwise communicate or make available anonymous, statistical or aggregated information to suppliers, business partners, sponsors, affiliates and any other third party, at DOOR Hacker's sole discretion.

How does DOOR Hacker access & use your Google user data?

DOOR Hacker may use Google OAuth in order to get access to your Google data as describes as follows:

- As part of your registration to certain Services, you can choose to register using your Google account. As part of this process DOOR Hacker will create a DOOR Hacker account using your Google e-mail address, and later on will use it as your system e-mail address.
- If you choose to synchronize your Google Calendar with a Service, DOOR Hacker will access your Google calendar and will use it to display your availability on your DOOR Hacker calendar(s).
- If you choose to synchronize your Google Contacts with a Service, DOOR Hacker will import your Google Contacts into DOOR Hacker's app and will use it to allow you to contact your clients.

How can you access your personal information?

If you are a Customer and registered to the Services or Sites you can submit a relevant request – please refer to “How to get in touch” section of this Privacy Policy.

Which ‘opt out’ and deletion options are available to you?

At any time you can opt out of DOOR Hacker's mailing lists, by sending DOOR Hacker a removal request – please refer to the “How to get in touch” section of this Privacy Policy. It can take up to ten (10) business days for your opt-out request to take effect.

If you wish to delete your personally identifiable information that is stored in DOOR Hacker's database, you can send a request to delete information – please refer to “How to get in touch” section of this Privacy Policy. DOOR Hacker will inform you whether it can accept your request. DOOR Hacker will strive to accept requests to delete personally identifiable information. DOOR Hacker can refuse your request, for example, if DOOR Hacker believes that removal of certain information can harm other users.

You will bear full responsibility for any damage, costs, fines and expenses resulting from the deletion of data pursuant to your request to exercise the right to be forgotten, and hold DOOR Hacker harmless thereof.

In any case, DOOR Hacker can keep any aggregated or anonymized information for statistical, marketing and other purposes, indefinitely.

It is DOOR Hacker's policy to keep Customer personal information on file unless specifically requested to be deleted.

How does DOOR Hacker secure your personal information?

DOOR Hacker and third parties on its behalf implement information security systems and procedures to secure your personal information. While such systems and procedures reduce the risk of security breaches, they do not provide absolute security.

Therefore, DOOR Hacker cannot guarantee that the Services or the Sites will be immune from any wrongdoings, malfunctions, unlawful interceptions or unauthorized access to the information stored therein and to other information security risks, or that your private communications on or through the Services or the Sites will remain private.

We restrict access to personal information you provided to DOOR Hacker or to our employees, contractors, vendors and agents who need to know that information for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

These individuals are obligated to keep your personal information confidential and they can be subject to penalties, termination of relations and criminal prosecution, if they fail to comply with such obligations.

The safety and security of your information also depends on you. Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password for access to certain parts of our Site, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share your password with anyone.

Links to other websites, applications or platforms

The Platform includes links to other types of websites, applications or platforms which we consider may be potentially informational and useful to you. However, keep in mind that we neither support nor recommend the content and/or services provided therein and that we are not liable for their privacy policies or terms of use. In this respect, we recommend that you read the privacy policies of any websites you may visit. Remember that the provisions herein are only applicable to personal data collected and/or processed by DOOR Hacker.

How does DOOR Hacker use cookies and other tracking technologies?

DOOR Hacker uses cookies when operating the Services or the Sites. Cookies are packets of information sent by DOOR Hacker’s servers to your web browser and then sent back by the browser.

DOOR Hacker uses cookies for various purposes, for example, to save you the need to re-enter your password or otherwise authenticate each time you log-in to the Services or the Sites

(where applicable), to facilitate the use of the Services or the Sites, to collect information for statistical and analytical purposes, to verify information, to customize the Services or the Sites to your personal preferences and for information security purposes.

Some of the cookies can expire when the session ends, and you exit your browser. Other cookies can be stored on your computer's hard drive. If you wish to block the cookies, then please use the help button in your browser and follow the necessary instructions. However, bear in mind that disabling cookies can complicate or even prevent your use of the Services or the Sites, or certain features thereof.

DOOR Hacker uses Google Analytics to collect information about the use of certain of the Services. Google Analytics collects information such as the frequency of visits to the Services, page views and other websites visited before using the Services. DOOR Hacker uses the information to maintain and improve the Services.

We may use the information collected through cookies to identify and authenticate visitors. We may also combine the information we collect with publicly available information, and with that of other users of the Website. For example, we may use your and other users' non-identifiable, aggregated data to improve the services we offer, for statistical analysis, and for other business purposes.

Google's ability to use and share information collected by Google Analytics about your visits to and use of the Sites and/or Services is governed by the Google Analytics Terms of Service. Please note that Google may use the collected information for their own purposes. You may learn more about how Google collects and processes data specifically in connection with Google Analytics at <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners>. You may prevent your data from being used by Google Analytics by downloading and installing the Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on, which is available at <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.
